AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th Day of March, 1763,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, hath laid before this Board, an Extract of a Letter from Sir Horatio Mann, His Majeſty's Reſident at Florence, dated the 12th of laſt Month, giving Information of a Contagious Diſtemper having manifeſted itſelf in Boſnia, Servia, and other Places near the Confines of Dalmatia, and that the Government of Florence had thereupon ſubjected every Thing coming from Dalmatia to a Quarantine of Twenty-one Days, in like Manner as had been done at Venice, Rome, Naples and Genoa—His Majeſty in Council this Day took the ſame into His Conſideration, and although it appeared, that a Quarantine of Forty Days is at this Time ſubſiſting, by the Orders of this Board, upon all Ships and Veſſels coming from or through the Mediterranean into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, yet His Majeſty judges it neceſſary upon this Occaſion to cauſe the ſaid Orders to be enforced: And to that End, His Majeſty doth hereby require and command all the Officers appointed for the Service of Quarantine, to uſe their utmoſt Care and Diligence in cauſing the ſeveral Rules and Regulations, eſtabliſhed for the due Performance of Quarantine, to be punctually and ſtrictly obſerved, and carried into Execution—Whereof the ſaid Officers, and all others whom it may concern, are to take Notice, and govern themſelves accordingly.

It is this Day ordered by His Majeſty in Council, that the Prohibition on the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coaſtwiſe, Gunpowder, Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, which was directed by Order of Council of the 17th of September laſt to be continued till the 29th Day of April next, be taken off.

W. Sharpe.

St. James's, March 26.

The following Addreſs of the Governors of King's College in the Province of New York, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Dr. James Jay, (on whom His Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood,) Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governors of King's College in the Province of New York, beg Leave, with the utmoſt Humility, to congratulate your Majeſty on the auſpicious Birth of a Prince.

With the moſt profound Veneration and Gratitude, we entreat your Majeſty to accept our ſincere and dutiful Acknowledgments, for your Royal Munificence and Patronage to the infant Seminary eſtabliſhed in this Colony under our Care and Government.

Animated by ſuch diſtinguiſhed Favours, we ſhall zealouſly exert ourſelves in forming the Minds of our Youth upon Principles of Virtue and Loyalty, that they may approve themſelves uſeful Members of Society, and faithful Subjects to the greateſt and beſt of Kings.

Given under our Common Seal the 14th Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

Ratisbon, March 7. The Aulick Council having drawn up a Concluſum relating to the Differences occaſioned by the Guardianſhip of Saxe Meiningen, his Imperial Majeſty approved of it, and in conſequence, the following Recript was addreſſed to the Dukes of Saxe Cobourg, Gotha, and Hildbourghauſen, dated the 25th of February.

His Imperial Majeſty being informed, by authentick Advices, that the ſaid Princes, contrary to the Laws of the Empire, have taken the Liberty to invade the Dutchy of Meiningen, by marching a Body of Troops to aſſault and cannonade the Town of Meiningen, and that, on this Occaſion, there had been Blood ſpilt: This Enterprize being contrary to all the Laws of the Empire, his Imperial Majeſty, reproaching the ſaid Princes with it, and waving the Imperial Reſentment which this Proceeding merits, orders them to withdraw immediately the ſaid Troops, and to leave the Whole to the Imperial Deciſion; informing them, that in caſe of Diſobedience, the Directorial Princes of the Circle of Franconia and Upper Saxony have received Orders to proceed to Execution againſt them, that the Tranquillity may be re-eſtabliſhed. His Imperial Majeſty informs the ſaid Princes, that he himſelf has taken Care of what regards them; enjoining them to comply with this Command, and to juſtify themſelves in two Months, otherwiſe they muſt expect he will proceed againſt them according to the Rigour of the Laws.

Purſuant to the ſaid Concluſum, a Reſcript was ſent the ſame Day to the Directorial Princes of the Circles of Upper Saxony and Franconia, importing, That though they are not ignorant of the Infraction of the Publick Peace, committed by the ſaid Princes of Saxe againſt the Country and Subjects of Saxe Meiningen, (who are under the Protection of the Supreme Judge of the Empire) and that the ſaid Directorial Princes are obliged, by virtue of their Office, to put a Stop to theſe Troubles; yet his Imperial Majeſty could not forbear charging them in particular, as ſoon as they ſhall receive this, to give the Princes of Saxe three Days to put an End to all Violence; and in caſe this Exhortation ſhould not be regarded, he enjoins the Directorial Princes of Franconia and Saxony to order their Troops to march againſt the Dukes of Saxe Cobourg, Gotha, and Hildbourghauſen; and in order thereto, they are to make Uſe of the Contingents that make Part of the Army of the Empire, concerning which, the General in Chief has already received Orders. It is however probable theſe Meaſures will not be neceſſary, ſeeing it is determined by the Concluſum, that the Guardianſhip and the Adminiſtration, begun by the Dutcheſs Dowager of Saxe Meiningen, is annulled, in as much as it is contrary to the Advice of the Empire, 1747; beſides, the Princes, Barnard Erneſt, and Anthony Auguſtus, born of the late Duke, and Madam Ceſar, are declared by that Concluſum incapable of ſucceeding; and the Dutcheſs's taking Poſſeſſion, in their Names, in conſequence of the Will of the late Duke their Father, was likewiſe abrogated and annulled. His Imperial Majeſty ſent alſo another Reſcript, of the ſame Date, to the Regency of Meiningen, reproaching them, that, without attending to the Advice of the Empire in 1747, they have acknowledged, by Order of the late Duke, his Two ſaid Firſt Sons for Co-Regents. His Majeſty alſo gives the Regency to underſtand, that he has declared theſe Two Princes incapable of inheriting, and reſerving to himſelf the Puniſhment which the Conduct of the Regency merits. His Majeſty farther enjoins them to continue, under the Imperial Authority, their Functions till further Orders; and, in the mean time, to publiſh the Imperial Reſcript to the Subjects of Meiningen, ordering them not to acknowledge for their Sovereigns theſe Two Princes under Pain of Death.

The Dutcheſs Dowager is commanded by this Concluſum to renounce that Article in the late Duke's Will, which is contrary to the Advice of the Empire; and his Majeſty adds, that, if this Princeſs will plead her Right to the Guardianſhip of the Children, and to the Adminiſtration of the Country in due Form, ſhe ſhall have a final Reſolution thereupon.

By the Accounts which the Diet of Franconia have ordered to be made, of the Forage furniſhed by the Circle to the French during the War, which is

is not yet paid for, but of which they expect the Payment of the Court of France; the Arrears amount to Two Millions Eight Hundred and Fifty French Livres,

They write from Vienna, that the Empress Queen has given the Government of Commore in Hungary, with an Appointment of Thirty Thousand German Florins a Year, to Prince Albert of Saxony.
